

STATEMENT

Ohsweken (December 4, 2017) – With heavy hearts, Six Nations Elected Council and its services offers sincere condolences and prayers to all of the families impacted by the recent loss of Robert “Bob” E. Johnson.

A District Five Councillor, a veteran of the Vietnam War, the Director of Gane Yohs for over 30 years and actively involved with the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 164 as well as the Hagersville and the Six Nations Veterans Association, he will be missed by many.

“Words cannot express how deeply saddened we are. Our condolences and prayers go out to everyone who has been affected,” said Chief Ava Hill.

As a member of the Elected Council, Councillor Johnson strived to improve the quality of life for each and every member of Six Nations.

“Councillor Johnson has always been a strong proponent for Six Nations and for the district that he served,” said Senior Administrative Officer Dayle Bomberry. “He will certainly be remembered for his outstanding commitment and dedication to building a strong, prosperous and healthy community for all.”
