

STATEMENT

Ohsweken (January 8, 2018) – As of December 28, 2017 the Ontario First Nations Sovereign Wealth LP welcomed 129 First Nations, including Six Nations, to the acquisition of shares of Hydro One.

“In November 2017 the Six Nations Elected Council passed a resolution to participate in the Sovereign Wealth LP,” said Chief Ava Hill. “Through acquiring shares of Hydro One, we will have the opportunity for collective wealth creation for our future generations.”

The transaction was negotiated by the Chiefs Committee on Energy on behalf of the Chiefs of Assembly, with a minimum of 80 percent participation required to finalize the agreement. Totalling over 90 per cent participation, the Sovereign Wealth LP has become one of the largest commercial limited partnerships among First Nations in the province.

To date, the Sovereign Wealth LP has completed the purchase of 14,391,012 common shares in Hydro One Limited and received a seed capital contribution of $29,023,890 for long-term wealth creation for its First Nations partners.
