Interim Matrimonial Real Property Tribunal: Call for Applications

The Six Nations Justice Program is seeking applications to assemble a roster of interim Matrimonial Real Property (MRP) tribunal members. The interim MRP tribunal serves as a point of appellate review for MRP mediation. The interim tribunal is to be comprised of three members, at any given sitting, who are to be randomly drawn from a roster of nine members. This is a short term, part-time casual position and experience as a mediator, arbitrator, or legal professional are strong assets.

Applicants must submit a cover letter articulating their interest and suitability for the position as well as a recent resume to: justice@sixnations.ca or mail it to the address below.

Any questions regarding the position can be sent to the Justice Program Coordinator, Barbara General, at the email or telephone number provided below.

The MRP law is available on Six Nations Elected Council website: www.sixnations.ca

DEADLINE: JULY 12, 2017
