

Restorative Justice and Over-representation in the Criminal Justice System

Where: 1721 Chiefswood Road, Iroquois Plaza, Ohsweken

When: August 3rd 11:30am-2:30pm

Lunch and refreshments will be provided!

What You Can Learn?

The Six Nations Justice Program's new staff would like to explore the value of restorative justice and the context that underpins its use. By attending this workshop you will:

- Meet the New Restorative Justice Workers
- Learn about the many factors that contribute to over-representation in the criminal justice system
- Learn about restorative justice and its positive benefits

If you wish to attend please RSVP with the Justice Program Coordinator, Barbara General via telephone, 226-446-9904, or email, justice@sixnations.ca.

We look forward to seeing you there.

SIX NATIONS COUNCIL

