SPORT LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

RISINGStars
ATHLETICS & EDUCATION

Developed & Directed by:
Elite National & Professional Athletes

Be a stronger, more confident LEADER!

Leadership is a powerful tool that often results in competitive advantages. At Rising Stars we believe that athletic training and competition provides unique and valuable opportunities to enhance and refine life and leadership competencies. We also believe that part of a responsible sports culture in any team, school, or organization should be leadership development for competition and beyond. Our innovative activities will assist in the development of responsible athletes, teams, and communities.
