THE SIX NATIONS TREATY OF THE GRAND RIVER

Governing the Construction and repair of Public Buildings on the Six Nations Reserve.

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient to pass a by-law governing the Construction and repair of Public Buildings on the Six Nations Reserve.

NOW THEREFORE THE COUNCIL OF THE SIX NATIONS INDIANS OF THE GRAND RIVER HEREBY ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. No public building on this Indian Reserve shall be erected or repaired without an authority permitting the said erection or repairs being first obtained from this Council and proper plans, specifications and estimated cost of said erection or repairs shall be submitted to the Council for its approval and said approval obtained and also said erection and repairs shall be under the supervision of the Inspector of Works appointed by this Council.

2. Upon a conviction for a breach of any of the provisions of this by-law the person convicted shall forfeit and pay in the discretion of the convicting Magistrate or Justice of the Peace a penalty not exceeding (exclusive of costs) the sum of $50.00 for each offence punishable under the Summary Convictions Act.

3. In addition to the penalty provided for in the preceding paragraph of this by-law the convicting Magistrate or Justice of the Peace besides imposing a penalty may order the offender to carry out the requirements of this by-law within a time to be limited by the order. In default of the offender carrying out such order, the said Magistrate or Justice of the Peace may order the demolition or removal of the structure or the parts thereof erected or structurally altered contrary to the provisions of this by-law at the expense of the offender.

4. The conviction of an offender upon a breach of any of the provisions of this by-law, shall not operate as a bar to a prosecution against the same offender upon any subsequent breach of the same or any other provisions of this by-law. The presiding Magistrate or Justice of the Peace may convict any offender repeatedly for repeated breaches of this by-law, and may at his discretion, impose upon each conviction any of the penalties provided for by this by-law.

Passed in General Council at Oshkosh on the 1st day of May, A.D. 1952.

I the undersigned do hereby certify this to be a true copy of the by-law passed by the Council and approved by the Minister.

MAY 1 1952

THE SIX NATIONS LEAFLET OF THE GRAND RIVER

Respecting Destruction of Public Buildings and Property.

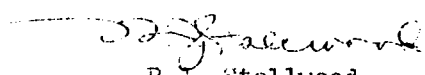

WHEREAS it is necessary to pass a by-law respecting destruction of public buildings and property.

NOW REFERRED TO THE COUNCIL OF THE SIX NATIONS INDIANS OF THE GRAND RIVER RESERVE AS FOLLOWS:

Any person who destroys or damages any public buildings on the Reserve, or damages or destroys any signs or any public property, shall upon conviction before a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace forfeit and pay the cost of the damages and a fine not exceeding One Hundred Dollars or be imprisoned for a term not exceeding thirty days, or both fine and imprisonment.

Passed in General Council at Ohsweken on the 1st day of May, A.D.1952.

I the undersigned, do hereby certify this to be a true copy of the by-law passed by the Council and approved by the Minister.
